

GROUP STUDY GUIDE

WEEK OF JULY 27, 2025 | NEXTGEN WEEKEND

WARM-UP QUESTION

Take a moment to check in: How did your “I will” statements go this past week?

DISCUSS

Read Deuteronomy 6:4-7 & Judges 2:10

- What do you notice about these two passages? What must we do first before we can help others know about God?
- Did you have someone in your life who modeled Deuteronomy 6:4-7 for you? If not, how can you be that person for someone else in your life today?

Read Psalm 145:4-7

- Spend some time listing out the attributes of God that you see in this passage.
- Look back at your own life. Where has God been faithful? What would you have told your younger self?
- David says, “Everyone...will sing with joy about your righteousness.” Where do you need to infuse joy?

Read 1 Timothy 1:15-16, 4:12

- How is God calling you to be an example of Him to others in your life right now? Where might you be running from this call on your life?
- What might it look like for you to offer a blessing to a young person in your life? How can you speak words of encouragement and life into that person’s life?

TAKE ACTION

Pastor Ryan mentioned, “The depth you’re searching for won’t come from learning more, but from passing your faith to the next generation.” How are you passing your faith to the next generation? If you’re looking for opportunities to partner with us as a church to equip the next generation with the message of Christ, consider joining one of our NextGen serving teams here!

Craft a personal and practical “I will” statement:

- Keep it specific, realistic, and doable this week.
- Share your “I will” statement with the group for encouragement and accountability
