

MESSAGE REVIEW

2020 has felt a bit like the story of Acts 27 – a giant storm and subsequent shipwreck. The sailors did everything in their power to keep the ship on course to no avail. As we close out 2020, it's important to take time to reflect on the year, grieve losses, and give thanks for the places you saw God at work. As a new year dawns, stay courageous and hold on to hope. God is never done working.

Most groups won't be meeting this week. Pick one of the Daily Bible Readings to discuss with group members via your group text/chat. If you haven't done so already, have them reflect on the past year. It's easy to look ahead to the next year and forget to celebrate and even grieve all that has happened the past 12 months. Consider sharing together using some of these prompts and be encouraged by one another!

- Someone I'm grateful for
- Progress I can celebrate
- How God moved
- A lesson I learned
- A favorite memory
- A goal for next year
